

Project Manager (m/f)

We are Whow Games

Right in the heart of downtown Hamburg City, there's a wonderful job waiting just for you - and it's full of that start-up feeling! Together with over 80 colleagues, you'll be working on bringing the glamor and entertainment of Las Vegas straight to Europe – with our successful social casino at Jackpot.de. From slot machines to table games, our players can experience the entire range of entertainment from the largest casinos in the world - free of charge - right on their mobile phones, tablets or PCs.

Who are we looking for?

As a Project Manager (m/f), you'll be responsible for the smooth further development of our products. Are you well-organized and do you possess excellent communicative capabilities? Can you envision yourself supporting us in making our processes more efficient? Then you're exactly who we're looking for at our Hamburg gaming factory - full-time and hopefully right away!

Your area of responsibility:

- You'll guide projects while applying agile methods and systems
- You'll plan the distribution of internal resources for an efficient and smooth completion of our projects and daily business while continually optimizing resources and project processes for our long-term success
- Together with the respective stakeholders, you'll develop and finalize the amount of work involved in the projects and their goals while ensuring that these can be technically realized
- With the development of a detailed project plan, you'll ensure that all projects are carried out on time
- You'll regularly report on project statuses, project plans, roadmaps, and milestones while informing management when any escalation measures may be necessary

What you bring to the table:

- At least two years of occupational experience as a project manager at a software company
- Practical experience with classic and agile project management
- Experience with Atlassian products such as Confluence and Jira
- Very strong use of written and spoken English
- Excellent communications, project management, and problem-solving skills
- Distinct teamwork strengths and the ability to manage several complex projects with various groups
- Kanban and/or SCRUM certification is desired

In addition to team spirit and exciting tasks, this is what you can expect to find at Whow Games:

- You'll profit from a professional circle of colleagues with multi-year experience in the industry
- Dynamic environment with flat hierarchies and quick decision making
- Flexible work times and home office options
- Personal yearly further education possibilities
- Regular company events
- Fruit, drinks, and meal perks
- Subsidized HVV Profi Ticket for travel with public transportation

We are looking forward receiving your application!
