

Mobile Release Manager (m/f/d)

We are Whow Games

Right in the heart of downtown Hamburg City, there's a wonderful job waiting just for you - and it's full of that start-up feeling! Together with over 80 colleagues, you'll be working on bringing the glamor and entertainment of Las Vegas straight to Europe – with our successful social casino at Jackpot.de. From slot machines to table games, our players can experience the entire range of entertainment from the largest casinos in the world - free of charge - right on their mobile phones, tablets or PCs.

Who are we looking for?

We are searching for a Mobile Release Management (m/f/d). As part of the Mobile Team, you will be responsible for publishing the applications, submissions and to deliver our games to our clients on App Stores.

Within this position, you are a key contact for project's life: from taking care of the early steps of the technical setup to actually pressing the release button and then executing live operations. Does this sound like the job you have ever dreamed of? Then you're exactly who we're looking for at our Hamburg gaming factory - full-time and hopefully right away

Your area of responsibility:

- Contact person for releases on iOS, Google Play as well as other platforms & submit our games on different stores (iOS, Google Play as well as other stores when relevant)
- Ensure all stakeholders has the right level visibility before and after the roll out
- Monitor key indicators and give the teams the means to optimize their discover-ability on stores
- Discuss, create and share planning for each upcoming version taking into account store-specific deliverables
- Monitor delivery timings and make sure the plan is respected
- Handle technical setup: App declaration in the systems, configuration of project's features (Achievements / Leaderboard / In-App purchases) and associated files
- Report and provide documentation to your manager regarding the team's KPIs and overall activity
- Identify best practices and implementing new processes & conduct follow-ups on the team's activity, performance, development needs and well-being

What you bring to the table:

- Experience in using iTunes Connect and the Play Console
- Ideally first experience in management (direct or indirect) and able to demonstrate leadership skills
- Very strong use of written and spoken English as well as excellent communications, project management, and problem-solving skills
- Last but not least, you will be in the heart of the mobile business, you will need to be up to date on the latest news and be capable to share key information with the rest of the company.

In addition to team spirit and exciting tasks, this is what you can expect to find at Whow Games:

- You'll profit from a professional circle of colleagues with multi-year experience in the industry
- Dynamic environment with flat hierarchies and quick decision making
- Flexible work times and home office options
- Personal yearly further education possibilities
- Regular company events
- Fruit, drinks, and meal perks
- Subsidized HVV Profi Ticket for travel with public transportation
- Zuschuss zum HVV Profi Ticket

We are looking forward receiving your application!
