

Product Owner (m/f)

We are Whow Games

In the heart of Hamburg City, your new job is waiting for you - including startup feeling. Together with 50 colleagues, you work to bring the glamour and entertainment of Las Vegas to Europe - with our successful Social Casino on Jackpot.de. From slot machines to table games, our players can experience the entire entertainment experience of the largest casinos in the world for free on their smartphone, tablet or PC.

Who are we looking for?

We're currently looking for an experienced Product Owner (m/w). Have you got active experience with agile methods of project management, having already successfully established and scaled products? If so, then you're exactly who we're looking for in our Hamburg-based game smithery! This is a full-time job and we're hoping you'll be able to start immediately!

Your responsibilities:

- As the Product Owner, you'll be an important driver of our products and you'll play a considerable role in making our vision a reality as well as developing product strategies
- As the Product Owner, you'll be responsible for controlling the content of a cross-functional development team
- You will be the central contact partner for all relevant stakeholders and you'll bring business goals and user needs together with the strategic company goals
- You'll maintain a product backlog and prioritize the user stories corresponding to the requirements of all stakeholders and customers
- Together with the team, you'll conduct sprint plannings and reviews
- You'll regularly provide transparency on and about the results achieved in the team and your decision while actively incorporating stakeholders
- Together with the other Product Owners, you'll keep a watchful eye on the market, monitor relevant product key figures, and report insights to your team and stakeholders

What you bring:

- Multiyear experience as a Product Owner with agile product and project management techniques
- Verifiable experience in establishing and scaling products
- You've already developed several web & mobile products and led them to success
- You are a real team player who commands and appreciates cooperative work and leading interdisciplinary teams
- A deep understanding of technologies as well as agile processes and methods
- Excellent time management skills
- You are a "networker" who understands what it means to inspire your colleagues, and to communicate this inspiration in a convincing and accurate manner
- You know how to successfully conciliate user needs, business goals, and technological challenges
- Excitement and a buzz for slot & casino games
- Very strong knowledge of and capability in both written and spoken English

In addition to start-up flair and exciting tasks, we offer:

- Dynamic environment with flat hierarchies and quick decisions
- Flexible working hours and home office
- Regular company events
- Fruit, drinks and meal allowances
- Contribution to the HVV Profi Card
